Privacy Statement

1 When you join the Credit Union, we will need to collect information about you so that we can open and operate your savings account.

2 We will also need to collect information that the government requires us to collect so that it can be sure that we are taking care of your money.

3 We will need to report information about your account to government agencies like Revenue and the Central Bank.

4 We will keep the information we collect until you close your account and for a number of years afterwards as required by law.

5 While you are under 16, we will also need to collect some information from a parent or guardian who will become a trustee on your account.

6 Once you are 16, we will invite you to become a full member of the Credit Union and you will no longer need a trustee on your account.

7 You have rights around how we handle your information.

8 If we get something wrong you can ask us to fix it and we will do that.

9 You can ask us to provide you with a copy of your information and we will supply it within one month.

10 You have other rights like the right to object to us using your information and the right to have it deleted. We will action your requests where possible.

11 Savvi Credit Union has a Data Protection Officer whose job is to look after your rights.

12 If you want to find out more about your rights we have a Data Protection Statement on our website at: <https://savvi.ie/data-protection-statement/>

13 You can always ask to speak to our Data Protection Officer or email dpo@savvi.ie

For the account trustee

A Unless you are already a member, we will need to collect Photo Identification, Proof of Address from a parent or guardian when the child's account is being opened.

B Your information will be held on the child's account until he or she turns sixteen and converts the account to an adult member account.

C Your data will be processed in accordance with the Credit Union Data Protection Statement which is provided on our website at <https://savvi.ie/data-protection-statement/> or you may ask to see it at anytime in the Credit Union.
