Section B Additional Information

^[1] Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory deposit guarantee scheme. If insolvency should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to €100,000.

^[2] General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the DGS. This repayment covers at maximum €100,000 per credit institution. This means that all eligible deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

^[3] Limit of protection for joint accounts

In the case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as “temporary high balances” are protected above €100,000 up to a limit of €1,000,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits relating to certain events which include:

- a) certain transactions relating to the purchase, sale or equity release by the depositor in relation to a private residential property by the depositor;
- b) sums paid to the depositor in respect of insurance benefits, personal injuries (a claim for compensation for personal injury is not subject to the limit of €1 million for 6 months after that amount has been credited), disability and incapacity benefits, wrongful, conviction, unfair dismissal, redundancy, and retirement benefits;
- c) the depositor's marriage, judicial separation, dissolution of civil partnership, and divorce;
- d) sums paid to the depositor in respect of benefits payable on death; claims for compensation in respect of a persons death or a legacy or distribution from the estate of a deceased person;
- e) where it is held in an account on behalf of a depositor in his or her capacity as personal representative of a deceased person for the purpose of realising and administering the deceased estate.

More information can be obtained at www.depositguarantee.ie

^[4] Reimbursement

The responsible deposit guarantee scheme is:

Deposit Guarantee Scheme, Central Bank of Ireland, PO Box 11517, Spencer Dock, North Wall Quay, Dublin 1.

Tel: 1890-777777. Email: info@depositguarantee.ie Website: www.depositguarantee.ie

It will repay your eligible deposits (up to €100,000) within 7 working days, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the repayable amount cannot be made available within seven working days depositors will be given access to an appropriate amount of their covered deposits to cover the cost of living within five working days of a request. Access to the appropriate amount will only be made on the basis of data provided by the credit institution. If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the deposit guarantee scheme.

Further information can be obtained under www.depositguarantee.ie
